THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

- 25X1 1. KBW (Internal Security Corps) has two units in Warsaw. One is located at Litewska Street near the Soviet Embassy. One building within the compound is occupied by the Government Guards (Ochrona Rzadu-OR) which is charged with the protection of Polish officials. The OR is under the jurisdiction of the Ministry of Public Security. A second KBW unit of about 400 is at 44 Wisniowa Street.
2. The Ministry of Public Security is at Koszykowa Street. The headquarters reportedly contains cells underground for up to 1,000 prisoners. In addition, a hotel administered by the Ministry is at 10 Mazowiecka Street. The Ministry of Public Security also controls many newly-constructed houses used for its own purposes. Some of the houses are at Kazimierzowska and Rakowiecka Street; several houses which are not yet completely furnished are at Wisniowa and Rakowiecka Streets and on Narbuta between Wisniowa and Rakowiecka Streets.
- 25X1 3. There are no Soviet military units in Warsaw. There are, however, many Russian officers on duty in the city. The Soviets use Polish [] vehicles
